PROFILE

I am a full-time Media and Communications Pastor for Tabernacle Baptist Church in Ennis, Texas. I like to help churches and organizations by making sure that they present a wide-open front door to the world. There are many natural barriers that keep people from crossing the threshold of a church or organization. Many times, a shift in messaging, providing clear steps, telling stories, and engaging the surrounding community through media is all it takes to start bringing those barriers down.
